
TECHNICAL PROJECT COORDINATOR

Department: Infrastructure

Job level: Middle

ACROM is looking for a Technical Project Coordinator willing to learn new technologies and participate in various internal and international projects.

Day to day job:

- Take ownership of IT projects and coordinate other users, business partners and support organizations;
- Design/ test/ propose IT infrastructure solutions to various business needs;
- Remote infrastructure/ applications deployment for external customers;
- Provide advanced technical support for various technologies/solutions/services, as needed;
- Participate in training sessions of new solutions/technologies, and subsequently train others;
- Prepare technical documentation.

Job Qualifications:

- Full cycle Project Management experience: initiation, planning, execution, monitoring and controlling, closing;
- Experience in server/ infrastructure management (Microsoft environment is preferred);
- Experience with embedded systems;
- Experience with server virtualization and networking is a plus;
- Technical certifications (e.g. Microsoft);
- Knowledge of scripting (shell scripts, batch files etc.);
- English proficiency;
- Willingness and availability to travel, mostly in Europe;
- Customer Focus and Service Delivery;
- Continuous Improvement and Change: contribute to and support change to improve and develop services.

- Deals effectively with pressure, remains optimistic and persistent, even under adversity and recovers quickly from setbacks;
- Openness to change and new information: rapidly adapts to new information, changing conditions, or unexpected obstacles.

We invite you to send us the updated CV at: hr@acrom.ro

Before applying you are invited to consult our Privacy Terms and Conditions at <http://www.acrom.ro/politica-de-confidentialitate/>. By sending your CV you agree with our Privacy Terms and Conditions. In the case you want to withdraw your consent, please send us your request at office@acrom.ro.

Thank you!